

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:
Jason Lindaman
Hayes
303.957.4256 or 303.877.2492
jlindaman@madisoncap.com

HAYES TO HOST COMPLIMENTARY APPRAISAL EVENT
Valuations Of Photographs Will Be Provided By Freeman's Auctioneers & Appraisals

NEW YORK, Sept. 15, 2011 – Hayes Fine Art Storage and Logistics, celebrating more than 150 years of packing, storing and transporting fine art and antiques in Manhattan, announced it will host a complimentary appraisal event on Wednesday, Sept. 21 between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Open to the general public, it will feature verbal valuations of photographs provided by appraisers from renowned Freeman's Auctioneers & Appraisals. Each attendee will be limited to one photograph that can be appraised. No appointments are necessary.

"Our appraisal event is the ideal opportunity for people to learn more about the photographs that are displayed in their homes, wrapped and stored in our facility or forgotten about while being kept in a closet," said Senior Vice President and General Manager Andrew Hamilton. "We are very pleased to be working with Freeman's Auctioneers & Appraisals and appreciate the invaluable expertise they will provide for our clients and guests."

Since 1805, Samuel T. Freeman & Co has upheld an exemplary role as Philadelphia's leading appraisers and auctioneers. Freeman's has a unique history, preserving its family business and traditions for over 200 years and is changing with the times to maintain its position in today's thriving art market. It offers over 30 in-house auctions a year in sale categories including: American furniture, decorative and folk art, English and continental furniture and decorative Arts, Asian arts, fine American and European paintings, modern and contemporary art, rare books, fine prints, Oriental rugs, fine jewelry and silver, and 20th and 21st Century designs. To learn more about Freeman's Auctioneers & Appraisals, please visit freemansauction.com.

About Hayes Fine Art Storage and Logistics

Founded in 1860, Hayes Fine Art Storage and Logistics is one of the oldest fine art storage and transportation firms in the United States. Located at 305 East 61st St. in Manhattan, the company is a recognized leader in the storage, transportation, packing, crating and shipping of fine art and antiques. Hayes' recently renovated Upper East Side facility features premier climate-controlled storage space and the latest technology in smoke detection and security. To learn more about Hayes visit hayestorage.com.

###